
Welcome to The Forum

Posted by The Grapevine Magazine - 2007/08/11 08:32

The Grapevine Magazine has been successful due to the content that has been submitted by readers living in the UK and Spain who wish to share their experiences.

We have gone one step further and created the first Forum concentrating solely on the Axarquia region of Spain.

Please feel free to ask or reply to questions drawing on your own experiences. However, please do not refer in name to specific businesses or post any comments or images that could be deemed offensive.
